

Get to Know Pathways

Toastmasters International, the world leader in developing communication and leadership skills, has launched the Pathways learning experience, an interactive, customized and flexible education program.

1924

Founder Ralph C. Smedley recognized the need to help people build their public speaking skills and gain confidence in social settings.

2018

Toastmasters introduces Pathways, which leverages technology, is competency-based and can be accessed online to meet today's growing demand for leadership and communications skills.

Pathways at a Glance

Club meetings are at the core of Toastmasters, and Pathways is an extension of the club experience. The chart below highlights Toastmasters' five core competencies and the learning levels in Pathways.

Toastmasters Focuses on Five Core Competencies

Pathways leverages the foundational competencies learned through Toastmasters:

"We learn best in moments of enjoyment."

— RALPH C. SMEDLEY, FOUNDER

11 specialized learning paths* (with more in development)

*Public speaking is learned and practiced in all 11 paths.

Pathways Builds More Than 300 Unique Competencies

These are just a few of the competencies that Pathways builds at each level:

Online Assessment

Recommends the path that's the best fit for learners and aligns with their goals.

Available in Nine Languages

- العربية (Arabic)
- English
- Français (French)
- Deutsch (German)
- 日本語 (Japanese)
- Português (Portuguese)
- 繁體中文 (Simplified Chinese)
- Español (Spanish)
- 简体中文 (Traditional Chinese)

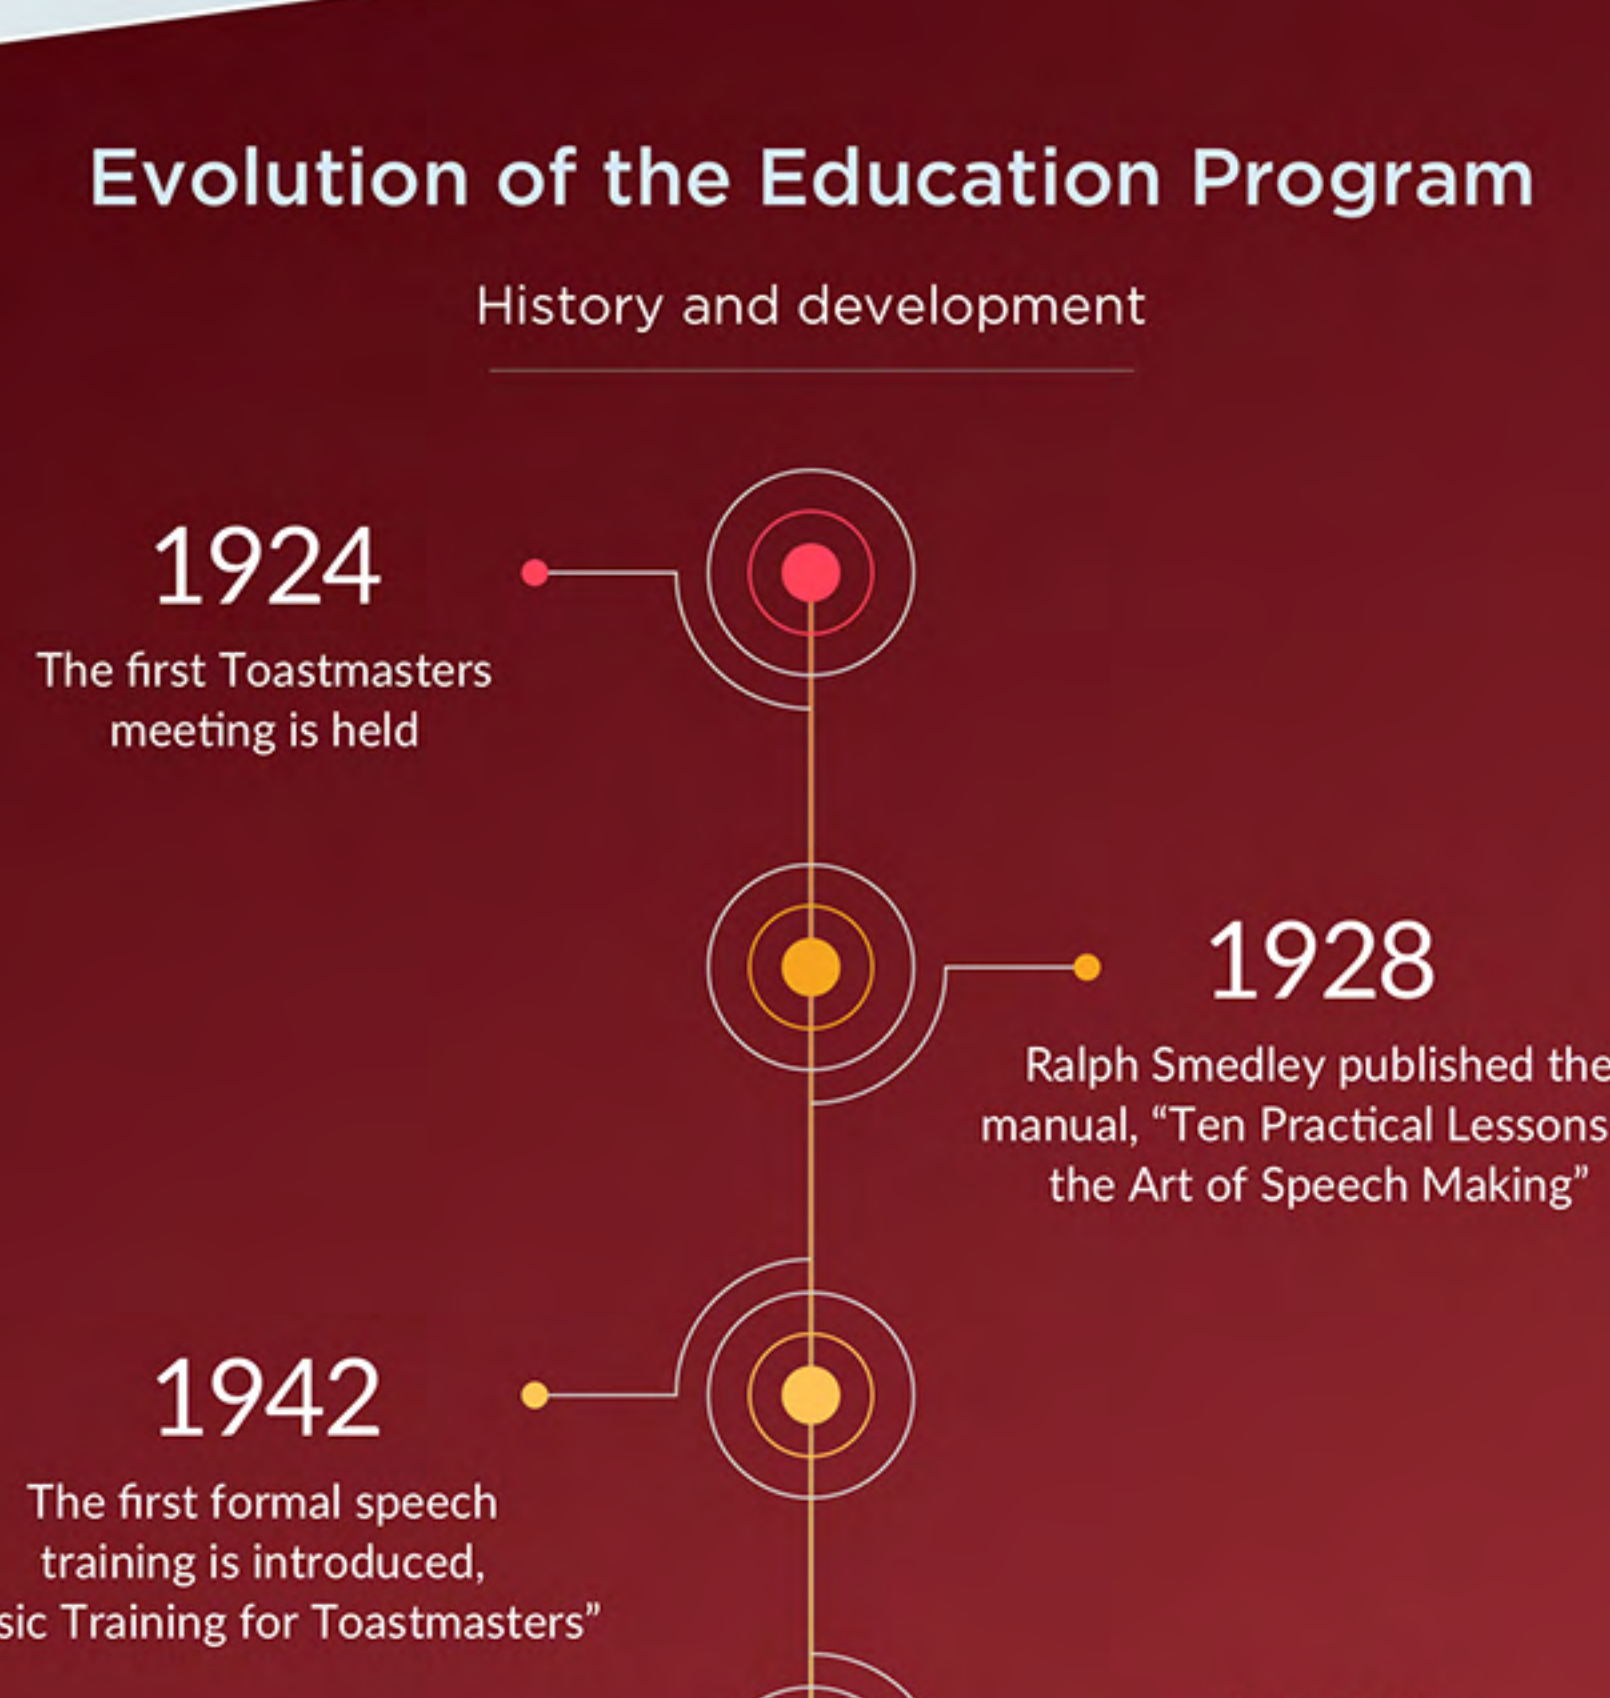

Benefits for Individuals

Benefits for Corporations

- Elevates employees' skill set and transforms their careers and your organization.
- Augments existing training programs and encourages employee retention.
- Employees learn real-world, transferable skills from a program that offers more than 300 competencies they can master.
- Ongoing employee development that is inexpensive when compared to seminars.
- Club meetings are conducted entirely by your employees.

What Members Are Saying:

Evolution of the Education Program

History and development

1924

The first Toastmasters meeting is held

1928

Ralph Smedley published the manual, "Ten Practical Lessons in the Art of Speech Making"

1942

The first formal speech training is introduced, "Basic Training for Toastmasters"

1978

The multi-manual, Advanced Communication and Leadership Program, is introduced

1997

Two tracks are introduced, communication and leadership

2005

The leadership track is strengthened and the Competent Leadership manual is introduced

2012

R&D for the revitalized education program is launched

2015

The worldwide content pilot is conducted

2018

The Pathways rollout is completed among membership